BPA software was chosen "by distance" because of the "greater depth" in the way to manage and display relationships between topics. This flexibility to display contextual information in an elegant interface was not possible with other software. In addition, SharePoint brought the needed features to easily configure anything we wanted.

Experience Digital Revolution 4.0 with Office 365/SharePoint Technologies

The quality department is generally behind in the digitalization process. While other departments use specific software, quality systems are usually costly, cumbersome and paper-based. The result of using outdated technologies is an inefficient quality system and poor engagement of collaborators.

Shift to a Collaborative Experience with Office 365
Based on Office 365 and SharePoint, our software goes beyond traditional quality management solutions and provides an innovative collaborative platform for the entire company. With unique discussion, automation and AI capabilities, you can ensure company-wide alignment to continuous improvement and a preventive mindset leading to quality products and services.
